SSC (Matriculation)	2008-2010	71.6%	Govt. Hazara Town High School, Quetta.

Final Year Project

My final year project is on “Personal Analytics for Faculty”. It is a Desktop Application tool which monitors the teachers’ activities and facilitates them in evaluating themselves about the time they have spent on “Teaching” versus the time they have spent on “Research”. There exists a large gray area between the data generated by the two types of activities (Research and Teaching) which has to be identified.
